SECONDARY COLORS

3 WHICH FONTS TO USE

PRIMARY FONTS

The Erskine Flying Fleet logo utilizes two weights of the Univers type family, a product of Monotype GmbH (www.linotype.com). Their usage is primarily designated for the logo design; however, they may also be used for headlines and supporting copy in advertisements and other promotional materials.

93 Univers Extra Black Extended Oblique ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

67 Univers Bold Condensed Oblique ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPORSTUVWXYZ

SECONDARY FONTS

Three additional weights of the Univers type family (www.linotype.com) have been chosen for multi-page materials, such as this document. This selection of fonts will provide a better typographical framework that will ensure good legibility and readability while staying consistent with the overall brand.

93 Univers Extra Black Extended is used for document titles only (uppercase).

93 Univers Extra Black Extended ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ 0123456789

67 Univers Bold Condensed is used for headings (uppercase) and subheadings (uppercase or title case).

67 Univers Bold Condensed ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZabcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz 0123456789

55 Univers Roman is used for body copy (sentence case).

5 HOW TO USE THE LOGO

SIZE AND SPACE

The Erskine Flying Fleet logo should always be sized so that each element of the mark is legible and correctly rendered in accordance with the original design.

In addition, adequate space should be allowed around all official logo versions. This ensures that copy, photography, or other graphical elements do not crowd the logo.

The graphic below illustrates how to space the Fleet logo. In most cases, it is best to allow more space than the minimum requirements.
