

Dept.: History

Position: Assistant Professor of History

Begin Date: August 2020

Description:

The Department of History and Political Science at Erskine College invites applications for the position of assistant professor of history (tenure-track) to begin in August 2020. The successful applicant will have a primary field in World History; or in the history of Latin America, Africa, Middle East, Asia, or Pacific; or in Europe since 1800. Teaching is a priority at Erskine and the load is 4-4. Applicants should be able and willing to teach both sections of World History (before and after 1500) and a course focused on contemporary global issues. A Ph.D. in history must be accomplished by August 2020.

Erskine is a Christian college and applicants should be committed Christians. Application materials include a cover letter and a letter addressing the applicant's faith.

Qualifications:

- Embrace, support, and promote Erskine College's Christian mission and philosophy of Christian higher education.
- Ph.D. in History.

Application Process:

To ensure full consideration, interested candidates should complete the on-line application, which can be found here. The on-line application includes a link to upload a letter of application, a resume, and a list of references.

Deadline:

The deadline for applications is October 30, 2019.
