

Assistant/Associate Professor of Sport Management – Tenure Track

About Erskine College

At the heart of Erskine College is its Christian identity. The college's mission is to equip students to flourish by providing an excellent liberal arts education in a Christ-centered environment where learning and biblical truth are integrated to develop the whole person.

Description

The Department of Economics and Business Administration at Erskine College invites applications for a full-time tenure-track Assistant Professor of Sport Management to begin Fall 2022 or Spring 2023. The Department of Economics and Business is committed to equipping our graduates with the fundamental skills of business management and to help them develop leadership and citizenship abilities.

Responsibilities

Erskine offers an undergraduate program in sport management and business with emphasis areas in accounting and general business. The ideal candidate must have a commitment to excellence in teaching and an interest in teaching a wide range of sport management courses. The normal teaching load is 8 courses (24 contact hours) per year or a 4-4 semester course assignment. Duties include academic advising, college service, and supporting the core curriculum of the college.

Qualifications

- A personal relationship with Jesus Christ
- Commitment to Erskine's vision and mission
- Willingness to offer spiritual support to students and staff

- Preferred candidate will have an earned doctorate or terminal degree in Sport Management or related field from a regionally accredited institution (ABD considered). Master's degree may be considered.
- Ability to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in sport management in both face-to-face and online environments

Application Process

To ensure full consideration, interested candidates should complete the online application, which can be found here. In addition, please provide the following:

- Cover letter
- References (at least three)

Deadline

Application review will begin immediately, and applications will be accepted until the position is filled.