Additional Information

- By April 21, seniors must have cleared all financial obligations with the Business Office.
- Your student should have ordered his or her cap and gown. If he or she has not, please use this link http://colleges.herffjones.com/college/_erskine/ to order your cap and gown. The cost for the cap and gown is covered by the graduation fee.
- Seniors who need to fulfill requirements beyond May 2023 will be listed as August degree candidates. Erskine has only one commencement each year; seniors graduating in August may walk with their classmates in May. Seniors who completed requirements in January 2023 also may walk with their classmates this May.
- We recommend that you arrive early for seating at both baccalaureate and commencement. No seats are reserved for families at either event; signs reserving seats for the public will be removed. Seats are reserved only for the seniors, faculty, marshals, press, other program participants, and their guests. Please observe these reserved sections.
- If bad weather forces us to move inside, commencement will take place in the Belk Arena of Galloway Physical Activities Center. Please observe reserved seating designations in the gym.
- You may take pictures at commencement when the graduating class gathers for a professional photo on the Lesesne Auditorium steps and as they are lining up for the processional. Once the processional begins, however, please be at your seat. Many people linger under the Erskine Towers after commencement, when you are welcome to take as many pictures as you wish.
- At commencement, restrooms are available in McCain Library, beneath the lobby of Lesesne Auditorium (the west side of the Erskine Building), and in Reid Hall. In Galloway Physical Activities Center, restrooms are located upstairs at either end of the Galloway Main Lobby and downstairs throughout the building.
- Overnight accommodations are available in nearby Abbeville, Anderson, and Greenwood, SC. Abbeville features several bed and breakfast options. Various chains operate hotels in Greenwood and Anderson. Information about all these properties is readily available online.

Again, we look forward to your being here in Due West for commencement. Please give us a call (864-379-8872) if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

D. Shane Bradley
Dean of the College
