

10:00
Event begins
10:15 - 11:00	Presenters	Location
A Walk on the Wild Side: Edible & Useful Plants of the Upstate	Chris Redding, Outdoor Enthusiast	Erskine Flagpole
Bamboo 101	Adam McCarty, Bamboo Specialist	Bamboo Grove, Corner of Bonner & Wightman Streets
Bird Walk	Matthew Campbell, Professor, Erskine College	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Main Entrance
Growing Daylilies	Neil Richardson, Richardson Daylilies	Pressly Family Heritage Garden, Tent 1
How to Grow Roses	Robert Alexander, Rose Lover	Bowie Arts Center Back Porch
Native Plant Walk	Dan Whitten, SC State Certified Naturalist	Pressly Family Heritage Garden Potting Shed
Pollinators Session 1: They Need Us ~ We Need Them	Susan Crook, Director, SC Master Beekeeping Program	Bowie Arts Center Auditorium
11:00 - 11:30
Janice Hamilton Haldeman Arboretum Dedication		Outside Daniel-Moultrie Science Center
11:00 - 1:00
Silent Auction		Model A Truck on the Mall
11:30 - 12:15
Keynote 1 : "What It Takes to Be a Champion Tree"	Michele Dani Sanchez, Clemson University botanist, horticulturist	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Auditorium
Backyard Hydroponics	Hunter Taylor, Cateya Davis - Clemson Extension Service	Holly Grove at Bowie Arts Center
Campus Arboretum Tour	Erskine College Staff	Leaves from Arboretum Dedication Site
Creating Junk Journal Booklets	Roberta Callaghan, Artist, Cally Creations	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Lobby
Creating Watercolor Topiaries	Nancy Campbell, Artist, Grace Under Pressure	Galloway Applied Arts Building, Bonner Street
Floral Arrangements	SC Governor's School for Agriculture Floraculture Students	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Lobby
Growing Cold Hardy Citrus	Michael Turner, Retired Horticulturist	Pressly Family Heritage Garden, Tent 2
Wreaths for All Seasons	Alice Bell, Artisan, Magnolia Garden Club	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Room 221
11:30 - 2:00
Musical Entertainment	Sadie & Cal Vocal Duo	Watkins Student Center Porch
12:15 - 1:00
Campus Arboretum Tour	Erskine College Staff	Leaves from Arboretum Dedication Site
1:00 - 1:45
Keynote 2: "Gardening for Biodiversity"	Martin Hamilton, Executive Director, SC Botanical Garden	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Auditorium
A Walk on the Wild Side: Edible & Useful Plants of the Upstate	Chris Redding, Outdoor Enthusiast	Erskine Flagpole
Bamboo 101	Adam McCarty, Bamboo Specialist	Bamboo Grove, Corner of Bonner & Wightman Streets
Bird Walk	Matthew Campbell, Professor, Erskine College	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Main Entrance
Growing Daylilies	Neil Richardson, Richardson Daylilies	Pressly Family Heritage Garden, Tent 1
How to Grow Roses	Robert Alexander, Rose Lover	Bowie Arts Center Back Porch
Pollinators Session 2: Challenges to Pollinators-What We Can Do to Help Them	Susan Crook, Director, SC Master Beekeeping Program	Bowie Arts Center Auditorium
1:45 - 2:30
Backyard Hydroponics	Hunter Taylor, Cateya Davis - Clemson Extension Service	Holly Grove at Bowie Arts Center
Campus Arboretum Tour	Erskine College Staff	Leaves from Arboretum Dedication Site
Creating Junk Journal Booklets	Roberta Callaghan, Artist, Cally Creations	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Lobby
Floral Arrangements	SC Governor's School for Agriculture Floraculture Students	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Lobby
Growing Cold Hardy Citrus	Michael Turner, Retired Horticulturist	Pressly Family Heritage Garden, Tent 2
Native Plant Walk	Dan Whitten, SC State Certified Naturalist	Pressly Family Heritage Garden Potting Shed
Wreaths for All Seasons	Alice Bell, Artisan, Magnolia Garden Club	Daniel-Moultrie Science Center Room 221
3:00
Event ends		